Elieser Kaplan founded the firm in 1991 and is the senior partner of the firm. He received an LL.M. degree, summa cum laude, in 1986 and an LL.B. degree, cum laude, in 1978, both from Tel-Aviv University School of Law. From 1979 to 1985 Mr. Kaplan worked at S. Horowitz and Co., in Tel-Aviv, where he managed the tax department.

Mr. Kaplan has provided tax advice to leading financial services, industrial and hi-tech companies as well as to a number of the world's wealthiest families. His extensive experience in various tax matters includes tax planning for international corporate businesses; tax advantaged financings; structuring cross-border investments; tax planning for investment funds; tax planning for multinational families including complex trust structures; corporate acquisitions, dispositions, joint ventures, and reorganizations; CFC issues; and international joint ventures.

Mr. Kaplan spends significant amount of time structuring intellectual property transactions.

Mr. Kaplan was an adjunct faculty lecturer in Tel-Aviv University School of Law from 1993 to 2004 where he taught the course on International Taxation. He has also advised the Israeli Tax Authority on trust taxation legislation and other aspects of international tax law.

Mr. Kaplan is a member of the Bar in Israel. His native language is Hebrew, and he is fluent in English.
